

José Manuel Temiño receives the Honor Award from Castilla y León Económica

- José Manuel Temiño, CEO of Grupo Antolin, took advantage of the event to thank the Antolín family for their trust and all the employees for their hard work

The CEO of Grupo Antolin, José Manuel Temiño, yesterday received the Honor Award from the magazine Castilla y León Económica and took the opportunity to explain the secrets behind the success of the company from Burgos.

He underlined the trust placed in him by the Antolín family which has allowed him to develop the company which has now reached a size that was unthinkable when he first joined the company.

During his speech he shared the secrets of success for the company in which creativity, leadership and customer satisfaction have undoubtedly played a fundamental role. He also mentioned the diversification of Grupo Antolin (product, territory and customers) which placed it in a better position to successfully overcome the most difficult moments.

Lastly, José Manuel Temiño underlined the importance of the people working at the company.

The event was attended by María Dolores Dancausa, CEO of Bankinter, and Francisco Román, President of Vodafone España.

The other winners this year were: Miguel Calvo, CEO of Grupo Norte (Best Company Director in Castilla y León); Ismael de los Mozos, Director of GSK in the Aranda de Duero factory (Multinational located in Castilla y León); José Manuel García Bejines, Finance Director at Queserías Entrepinares (Financial); David Villagrà Blanco, Marketing Director at Facundo Blanco (Sales and Marketing); David Herguedas Simón, Human Resources Director at Gadea Grupo Farmacéutico (Human Resources); Guillermo Pérez Valle, Sales Director at Bodega Cuatro Rayas (Exporting and Internationalization); Enrique Cobreros, Director of AEICE Construcción Eficiente

(R+D+i); Enrique Valero Quintana, Managing Director of Abadía Retuerta (Quality); and Daniel Carreño Álvarez, President of General Electric España y Portugal (Director from Castilla y León who is successful elsewhere).

For more information: <http://www.grupoantolin.com/es/noticias>

Grupo Antolin Marketing, Communications and Institutional Relations: 947 477904 / 91 74 25 291 / 947 477837

Email: ga.communication@grupoantolin.com