to achieve them. Profitability and purpose come together in Antolin to build the mobility of the future, from the interior of its products and its people.

Merco Companies is an international benchmark ranking that evaluates the reputation of Spanish companies since 2000. The reputational monitor is based on a multi-stakeholder methodology composed of six evaluations and more than twenty information sources. Merco Companies is the first audited monitor in the world, since the monitoring and verification of its preparation process and results is the subject of an independent review, according to the ISAE 3000 standard, which publishes its opinion for each edition. All weighting criteria are public and, like the results of each edition, can be consulted on the Merco website.
